

Host Your Class at The Classroom at GVM

The Classroom at Ganges Village Marketplace is a versatile space designed for instructors to share their skills and expertise. Whether you're teaching cooking, crafting, or professional development, our space is ready to support your needs.

How It Works

As the instructor, you set the class price, and ticket revenue is split:

60% to the instructor

40% to The Classroom

What We Provide

- Eventbrite listing for your class
- Promotion on our social media platforms, Salt Spring Exchange, and digital displays
- 10 printed posters displayed in the community
- Full classroom setup tailored to your specifications

Access to a wide array of equipment, including:

Presentation Tools:

- Large-screen TV with HDMI, whiteboard, and easel

Cooking Appliances:

- KitchenAid mixer, food processor, induction elements, and more

Cookware and Utensils:

Pots, pans, cutting boards, knives, and baking essentials

Dining Essentials:

- Plates, glasses, and cutlery for up to 32 participants

What You Provide

- Any class-specific materials or equipment not included in our inventory
- 48-hour notice for cancellations, as tickets will be refunded in full

After Your Class

We handle much of the cleanup, but we ask instructors to:

- Load and run the dishwasher (unloading not required)
- Wipe down tables and tidy up any debris
- Sort recyclables into designated bins
- Remove any items brought in for the class
-

Ready to Host?

The Classroom is your go-to space for community learning and engagement. Reach out to us today to discuss your class and reserve your date!